

South Atlantic Elevers Making Good---Martin Boxes at Hyattsville

LOOKING 'EM OVER

BY LOUIS A. DOUGHER

South Atlantic to the Fore

South Atlantic football elevers are very much to the fore this season, though not always winning. For instance, "Curly" Byrd's Marylanders fell before Rutgers, though showing well enough for an early game, while both Maryland and Washington and Lee were soundly defeated by the Princeton Tigers. However, the victories of Virginia Military Institute over Pennsylvania, 27 to 7, and of Virginia over Rutgers, 7 to 0, serve to show the football world that some real football is being taught the young athletes in this section. Adding Georgetown's overwhelming defeat of West Virginia, Wesleyan and Fordham, you have proof that the South Atlantic elevers need not bow their heads in any football gathering.

Next Saturday Virginia, with its victory over Rutgers to enliven it, will trample the sod of the Harvard stadium, hoping to make a good showing against the Crimson eleven conqueror of Centre College of Kentucky. Few believe the Orange and Blue will be victorious, but many do believe that Virginia will play good football against the bigger and more experienced Harvard cohorts. The Charlottesville team has fountained around quite a bit this season. It was whipped by V. M. I., 22 to 6, and barely won a sloppy game from Johns Hopkins, 14 to 0, but it came to play a real football to the end of the season.

Georgetown has yet to be defeated. The Hilltoppers passed through the Fordham game in fairly good condition and look for little trouble from Johns Hopkins next Saturday. That should be merely a preliminary game to fit the Blue and Gray for the tougher battles remaining, those with Navy, Georgia Tech, Washington and Lee and Boston College.

Catholic University provides this week's game for Washington football fans, battling Gallaudet. The Brooklanders are favored to win this game, their debacle at Easton last week meaning nothing in their lives. Lafayette is not in the same class with C. U., any more than Johns Hopkins is in Georgetown's.

HAS TOUGH CONTEST.

Maryland University will have a tough contest, when it goes to Chapel Hill, N. C., to play North Carolina University. The College Parkers won from V. P. I. Saturday and will work hard to repeat against North Carolina, but the Tar Heels displayed real ability against Yale a few weeks ago, especially in kicking and forward passing, and the Maryland team should be tested to the utmost.

V. M. I. yet to be defeated and with victories scored against Virginia and Pennsylvania, is going into Saturday's North Carolina State game a heavy favorite. The Lexington centaurs are the strongest they have been in many seasons and should have a large representation on the 1920 all-South Atlantic eleven.

Colgate's absolute failure to do anything at Ithaca last week indicates another slaughter at New Haven next Saturday. The Elis have pulled themselves together since defeat by Boston College and are going to make many other teams pay for that whipping Frank Cavanaugh administered to them.

Penn State, with a victory over Dartmouth, is going down to Philadelphia confident of slaying Johnny Heisman's Quakers into the mud of Franklin Field, even as they did last fall. Bendick has a wonderful machine, perhaps not quite as powerful as last year's, but still a great aggregation. Penn is not up to snuff this season, judging from recent scores.

Washington and Lee tackles V. P. I. at Lynchburg. The Generals should win.

SOME OTHER GAMES.

There seems to be a sort of let-down in the importance of the football games booked for this week. Indeed, there must come a period of

Poe's "Omelets" Are Tough Gang

Nelson Poe's "Omelets" are daily playing great football in the Palmer Stadium, but no one knows but the varsity squad, the coaches and themselves.

The "Omelets" are composed of ineligible players. They train just like the regulars, have their own formations and play practice games against the varsity. They are coached by Nelson Poe, a hero in early Princeton football. Some of the "Omelets" are transfers from other colleges, waiting for their year's residence before trying for the varsity. Others are back in their studies.

Prominent among the "Omelets" are Pixley, a star forward at Ohio State last fall; Alford, Navy's half back last year; Griffin, from Penn; Hendriar, of Pittsburgh; Meistro, of Rutgers, and "Pink" Baker, who played a great game for the Tigers against Yale last year only to become ineligible this fall.

YALE LOSES DICKENS; HAS A WRENCHED KNEE

Murphy Out With Sprained Elbow for at Least Two Weeks.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 25.—Yale lost Tom Dickens, the acting captain, in the game with West Virginia, when he wrenched his knee so badly that he can play no more this year. Dickens was the best tackle on the team.

Murphy sprained his left elbow and cannot play for two weeks. Fred Peterson, substituted halfback, sprained his ankle but will probably play against Brown November 6.

Halfback Bob Lay bruised both his arm and his leg and is now lost to the team for the second consecutive season.

None of the Yale cripples, Captain Callahan, Acosta, Aldrich, French and Auerbach will be able to line up for two weeks at least.

Dum, Michigan's quarterback, intercepted a forward pass and ran eighty yards for Michigan's one touchdown against Illinois.

Frank Murray, Princeton's brilliant seven yards through the Navy eleven for a touchdown.

Kelly, Webster, the Colgate halfback, ran sixty yards for a touchdown against Fordham.

Little Webster, the Colgate halfback, caught a punt on his own 10-yard line, and, threshing his way through the whole Cornell eleven, ran ninety yards for a touchdown.

"Dutchy" Leighty, Georgetown's halfback, ran sixty yards for a touchdown against Fordham.

Bids Football Good-by

Charles Brickley, Harvard's greatest football player, has given up the idea of being a football coach and decided to cast his lot in Wall Street. Under the name of Charles E. Brickley & Co., a new stock exchange firm has been organized to engage in a general brokerage business. The offices of the firm will be located at 61 Broadway. Brickley is associated with three other partners.

WATERMEN TO TACKLE EACH OTHER ON LAND

Potomac and Washington Clubs Stage Football Game.

Potomac Boat Club oarsmen and champion Washington Canoe Club paddlers have seized the date of November 13, when all of the local college football eleven are out of the city, to stage their football game.

Alexander, the Syracuse center, intercepted a Dartmouth forward pass and ran sixty-five yards before being thrown.

Loucks, the W. and J. end, recovered a fumble and ran forty-five yards for a touchdown against Lehigh.

"Hobo" Workman, Ohio State's quarterback, threw a forward pass thirty-eight yards to Pete Stinchcomb, who ran twenty more for a touchdown that defeated Wisconsin.

"Curly" Oden, Brown's brilliant halfback, intercepted a forward pass and ran eighty-five yards for a touchdown against Springfield Y. M. C. A. College.

In beating Catholic University, 84 to 10, Lafayette ran up the highest score ever made on March Field, while Virginia Military Institute succeeded in crossing Penn's goal line for the first time this season.

BYERS AND CARNEY GET TOUCHDOWNS FOR REX

Northeast Clubmen Stop Ewing Players in Fine Battle.

When Rex A. C. and Ewing A. A. players quit the field at Union Park at the end of the first half yesterday it looked for all like a repetition of last year's scoreless tie.

In the second half the Rexmen got going. Byers ripped off a thirty-yard run for a touchdown on an off-tackle play. Litkus kicked goal. In the third period the Ewing players tried hard to score. On a forward pass Carney picked the ball out of the air from a Ewing player's hands and ran through a broken field fifty yards for another touchdown.

Rex, with Litkus and Stephens in line, played better ball than at any time this season. The Ewing team turned a word of praise by the clean brand of football put up by the squad as a whole.

TECH YOUNGSTERS HAVE TOUGH WEEK

First Eleven Plays A. N. P. and Virginia Freshmen Within Three Days.

By BRYAN MORSE.

Technical High School football players will have a busy week of it. Coach W. M. Apple, who is bringing the Tech team along in fine shape, has listed two games in his big squad this week. Thursday afternoon the Tech lads tackle the Army and Navy Prep players.

Saturday afternoon Tech goes to Charlottesville, Va., for a game with the University of Virginia freshmen. This contest is expected to try out the Tech lads to the limit.

On Friday afternoon Tech's 135-pound eleven is slated to stack up against Central's 135-pound team. The Tech lads are hoping for a win. Central has not been together as long as Tech.

Central High goes to Baltimore Friday afternoon to play the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute eleven. The Central players have rounded into first-class shape since their trimming at the hands of the Baltimore City College eleven.

They came back in fine fettle Saturday, defeating the Shenandoah Valley Academy eleven by 38 to 0. The visitors were not quite up to the standard given out by the Central press agent, but displayed plenty of fight.

Western High has no game as yet this week. Today the Westerners will rest up. No practice has been ordered by Coach Green. Western romped through Business for a 48-to-0 score last Friday and is holding off today.

The Westerners displayed a fine brand of football Friday, but can improve on their form. It took them quite a while to get going against Business. The day was hot and neither team showed to advantage.

Business lads were pretty well banked up in their game with the Westerners Friday. Coach Kelly will look over his charges today to see just how much repairing is necessary. The Business lads played a plucky game Friday and deserve a world of credit for their showing.

Central has yet to make an appearance in the high school title game. After the Central lads strike their real gait Eastern and Business are expected to be in for a good tussling. Central will probably outweigh Eastern something like twenty-odd pounds to the man.

MAYMATCH HEAVIES BEFORE WEEK ENDS

Carpentier and Dempsey Likely To Decide World's Title In February.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier may be matched to box for the world's championship before the week is over, it became known today.

Jack Kearns, manager of the world's champion, admits having had several conferences with Francois Descamps, manager of the Frenchman; Tex Rickard, Madison Square Garden promoter; Charles Cochran, of London, who has Carpentier under contract, and William A. Brady, theatrical promoter, who represents Cochran in this country, regarding the match.

According to Kearns, Carpentier seems anxious to meet Dempsey and appears to be reasonable in his terms. Dempsey's manager stated further that negotiations have progressed to a stage where articles may be signed before Carpentier returns to France to spend the Christmas holidays.

When or where the match will be staged is uncertain. The purse to be hung up can only be guessed at. It is believed, however, that Cochran, Rickard and Brady will join hands in staging the bout and that if no hitch is encountered in securing a permit from the New York State Boxing Commission, it will be put on at Madison Square Garden, probably on Washington's birthday.

There will be two games for home consumption this week on college grids. Catholic University and Brookland are due to meet on the Brookland field while Bethany College, of West Virginia, comes here for a game with the George Washington University football team.

Gallaudet is able to give Catholic University a first class argument. Coach Hughes has worked up a first class offense and a defense just as good as that of C. U.

The Bethany College team which faces George Washington is a strong eleven. Against Salem College a week ago the Bethany lads ran up 84 points. George Washington puts in a hard week in preparation for this contest.
